

Fun in the Sun: Ten Electricity-Free Tucson Attractions

Purpose of Activity: To inform residents about various Tucson attractions that can be enjoyed without electricity

Materials Needed:

- Tips provided
- Fabric backing (butcher paper if needed)
- Decorations

Content:

1. Meet me at Maynards
 - a. <http://www.meetmeatmaynards.com/>
 - b. Meet up downtown to walk/run a designated route.
 - c. Yoga certain times of year
2. Star gazing
 - a. <http://spencersobservatory.com/>
 - b. Spencer's observatory is privately owned
 - c. UA has an observatory and you can head to Kitt Peak (about an hour away) as well
3. Tohono Chul
 - a. <http://tohonochulpark.org/>
 - b. Botanical gardens, galleries, and bistro
4. Tucson Botanical Gardens
 - a. <http://www.tucsonbotanical.org/>
 - b. Botanical gardens nestled in midtown (Grant and Alvernon)
5. Disc golf
 - a. <http://www.tucsondiscgolf.com/>
 - b. Various courses found around town
6. Desert museum
 - a. <https://www.desertmuseum.org/>
 - b. Fusion experience of zoo, botanical gardens, art gallery, natural history museum, and aquarium.
 - c. Tucson's number one attraction and one of Tripadvisor.com's top 10 museums in the country
7. Kartchner caverns
 - a. <http://azstateparks.com/Parks/KACA/>
 - b. Tour a live limestone cave
8. Saguaro national park

- a. <http://www.saguaronationalpark.com/>
 - b. Locations on east and west side
 - c. Drive or walk through these cacti that are hundreds of years old
9. Reid park zoo
- a. <http://reidparkzoo.org/>
 - b. See the baby elephant, lions, and more!
10. Camping on Mt. Lemmon
- a. Google "Mt Lemmon Camping"
 - b. Sites up to 8000 feet, which will be much cooler than Tucson

1.