TIPS FOR TAKING NOTES:

Find what works for YOU

• If you need to, mix 'n match styles from the following guide.
• Find the right tools - experiment with notebooks, digital apps, and routines.
• Color coding can help you stay organized. Play with color!

Use your resources

• Think Tank, thinktank.arizona.edu
• Disability Resource Center, drc.arizona.edu
• Courses in Common, bit.ly/commoncourses
• SALT Center, salt.arizona.edu
• Study groups
• Chegg

USING YOUR NOTES:

Schedule 15 minutes a day to:

• Read your notes
• Reorganize/clarify information
• Highlight questions you have or concepts for further review
• Make a plan to study or meet with your professor
WAYS TO TAKE NOTES

MAPPING METHOD

Pros:
- Visually represents complexities and connections between topics
- Can break concepts down into simpler components

Cons:
- Can appear messy or take up space

---

Mapping Method

Pros:
- Visually represents complexities and connections between topics
- Can break concepts down into simpler components

Cons:
- Can appear messy or take up space